Hello everyone

We invited you here today because we have a very important announcement!

We are Santa Claus' assistants and he sent us here to inform you about something.

Merry Christmas

Santa Claus broke his leg and he is not able to drive his sleigh in order to give children their presents! We are very sorry.

Hey, did I hear well?

Santa broke his leg?

This is a disaster! But I think I can help!

Some years ago, when I broke my arm, my mom made some magic Christmas trees for me!

When I ate them, suddenly my arm was healed.

We should save Christmas! Can you help me make some Christmas Trees and save Christmas?
